

Except when used by a purchaser from a dealer as above provided, dealer's tags shall not be used on any other motor vehicle while engaged in business of any kind or character except the automobile business of the manufacturer, dealer or distributor, nor in the business of transportation for hire or livery business; nor shall the same be used after such manufacturer, dealer or distributor shall have been notified by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles that such tags are forfeited because of his failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

Any manufacturer, dealer or distributor who shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this section or shall cause or permit dealers' tags to be used in violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title, and any person using such tags in violation of the provisions of this sub-title shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00), and upon conviction of any manufacturer, dealer or distributor, all tags issued to such manufacturer, dealer or distributor under Class D, Section 157 of this Article, shall be subject to revocation or suspension by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, and the said Commissioner after due hearing may refuse and decline thereafter to issue other such tags to such manufacturer, dealer or distributor.

A policy insuring one against accident caused by the wrecking of a "motor-driven car" did not contemplate accidents suffered while riding on a motorcycle, with or without a sidecar. Landwehr v. Life Ins. Co., 159 Md. 212.

Provisions as to For-Rent Cars.

1927, ch. 520, sec. 179B.

156. Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of renting motor vehicles without drivers, who shall rent any such vehicle without a driver, otherwise than as a part of a bona fide transaction involving the sale of such motor vehicle, shall maintain a record of the identity of the person to whom the vehicle is rented and the exact time the vehicle is the subject of such rental, or in possession of the person renting and having the use of the vehicle, and every such record shall be open to inspection by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, or any agent or employee designated by him, and it shall be a misdemeanor for any such owner to fail to make or have in possession or to refuse an inspection of the record required in this section. If the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles prescribes the form for the keeping of the record provided for in this section, the owner shall use said form.

Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject, upon conviction, to a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, or imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than one year, or both fine and imprisonment for the first offense.
